

1 Québécois

We lift up our neighbours in Quebec and pray for the local churches to be so overwhelmed by a move of the Holy Spirit that it ignites the believers there anew to get actively engaged with their faith in institutions, in the community with returning citizens, and with the families of prisoners through the Angel Tree programs.

2 1LIFE Events

We pray for the various events being held across the country to introduce and engage the local Christian church community to the breadth of the work that we do at PFC. We pray that it will have deep impact and many would be inspired to get involved in a variety of ways. May all the planning and execution be carried out smoothly.

3 Spiritual Formation

We continue to intercede for those we serve in prisons across Canada and ask the Lord to open every door of opportunity to allow for us to walk alongside and serve our incarcerated brothers and sisters in their faith journey's. We pray for the continual building up of their faith.

4 1LIFE Winnipeg

We pray for a successful event as we introduce the Manitoba community to the realities of returning citizens through our Prison Fellowship Canada 1LIFE game. We pray that many would be stirred up by the heart-breaking experience to step forward and be part of the solution.

5 Bridgecare Teams

We lift up the various Bridgecare volunteers across Canada serving to journey with reintegrating citizens and pray that the Lord would protect them, guide them, teach them wisdom, and use them powerfully to bless the lives of those they serve. May the Lord also bless the teams to grow together in unity.

6 Angel Tree Camping

As children across Canada begin making their way to camp, we pray that the Lord would protect each one from injury or illness, that they would be overwhelmed by the joy that God gives, and that they would find family and friendships that last forever through their camp experience.

7 Wisdom & Grace

As we continually work to streamline office processes, manage our data better, and create efficient workflows, we pray for wisdom in our development. We pray for heavenly strategies to overcome the obstacles of our administrative duties, and we pray for grace as we learn to navigate new tasks.

8 Angel Tree Caregivers

As we consider the burdens of single parent caregivers, retired grandparents, and others who step in the gap to support the children of prisoners, we pray for a special blessing of rest and restoration for them as these little ones make their way to camp this summer. May this time be divinely ordained for an encounter with the Lord for these loving caregivers as well!

9 Curriculum Development

We pray for the ongoing inspiration and direction from the Lord as we seek to develop spiritually supportive curriculum that equips prisoners to engage meaningfully with their faith, finding healing, restoration, the release of burdens and the freedom that only comes through Christ!

10 British Columbia Event

We lift up BC Regional Manager, Stuart Tisdale, and all of the planning and preparation that went into this evening's awareness event. We pray that the Lord would bless the speakers; that everything would be carried out without issue, and that people leave with a deep sense of the need to get involved.

11 Volunteer/Sponsor Encouragement

We lift up our various volunteers serving in a variety of ways across Canada, from supporting prisoners in and out of jails, to walking alongside their families in community and providing the means for their little ones to go to camp. We pray that this outpouring of selfless kindness is continually met with personal resources and encouragement for the journey.

12 Divine Connections

We lift up our volunteer Bridgecare teams and pray that not only would they be blessed by their connection to prisoners, but also that they would find divine connection and support from one another as a Bridgecare team.

13 Joy In Service

We lift up our national staff and pray that we would each individually walk in the blessing of the Lord, finding continual joy in all our labours and the lightness of burden that only Jesus can promise and deliver.

14 Future Prospects

We lift up our fearless organization chief and leader, PFC CEO Stacey Campbell, and pray for the Lord's covering over her heart and mind. May the Lord give her clear and confirmed vision for the future of PFC and the resources and strength to carry it out.

15 Church Contacts

We lift up the Canadian Christian church community and ask the Lord to stir up a holy fire within us for the marginalized and the prisoner. Bring to mind the truth by your Spirit Lord, and show us your heart for the poor in Spirit.

16 Social Media

We pray for the inspiration for a strong and robust social media marketing campaign that effectively communicates the breadth of the work we do with prisoners, ex-prisoners, and their families, but that also inspires many to step forward to answer the high calling of Christ through getting involved.

17 Vanier Women's Resources

We thank the Lord for the diligent efforts of Paige Wright as she works to develop a clothing resource for released prisoners. We pray that she finds favour both in and out of prison to make resources available to these returning women. May she also find special joy from the Lord in her labours.

18 Spiritual Development

As the Lord leads us as a national ministry, we pray that the Holy Spirit will find unique ways to continually bestow a sense of the deep abiding love of the Father, not only for prisoners, but also for one another.

19 Father's Day Blessing

We pray that the great love of our heavenly Father would permeate the places where men and women have not had great earthly examples of a father, and we bless those men who have stood in the gap to be an example of the Father's heart to prisoners and their families.

20 Chaplain Covering

We pray for the continually covering of our Canadian prison chaplains in all that they do. May the Lord avail resources to support them in their work; may He give rest to those where rest is needed; may He restore a sense of joy in ministry, and may He draw each one into deeper fellowship with Himself.

21 In-Prison Programs

We continue to pray for our in-prison programs to make their way into institutions across Canada. May the Lord provide entry points through our Corrections partners, volunteer partners, and through Chaplains & Program Staff for PFC programs to reach prisoners and transform the spiritual landscape of prisons.

22 Mental Health Training

We pray for those volunteers who have stepped forward to avail themselves of the additional supportive resource of Mental Health training to accompany them in their ministry to prisoners. May the steps come easily and readily to each one in the training, and flow over to the practical applications of everyday life.

23 CSC Partnerships

We thank the Lord for all the wonderful ways in which Corrections Services Canada has partnered with Prison Fellowship Canada and availed the opportunity for us to bring life-giving programs and the gift of connection to prisoners. We pray the Lord continues to have His hand firmly upon our relationship; to bless it and cause His face to shine upon it.

24 Translation Projects

We are so thankful for our QC Regional Manager, Lorraine Dubois, and her support in translating PFC curriculum. We pray for a smooth project management process and for continued support and favour for Lorraine in all of her work in general as she continues to make PFC programs available in Quebec.

25 God Of The Details

We pray that the Lord would continue to highlight the finer points to us and those easily overlooked aspects of ministry in all that we do. We pray for the time and resources to continually address these details that support the larger work.

26 Establish Us In Our Prayer Life

We pray that Prison Fellowship Canada will continue to be earnest in prayer; constantly seeking and listening to the Lord both corporately and individually, and that the heritage of prayer carries on forever among our staff, volunteers, financial supporters, and partnered organizations.

27 Creative Outlets

We lift up those prisoners who are gifted with creativity and the various forms that it takes. We pray that they would find healthy and meaningful outlets for expression, and that the Lord would speak to them through it and to the world through them.

28 The Prodigal Son

We pray for understanding and insight as we develop our curriculum around Henri Nouwen's, "The Prodigal Son". We thank the Lord for this wonderful partnership with the Henri Nouwen Society and seek the Lord for direction so that we might carry out the intentions of His heart through this program.

29 Research & Development

We pray for continual wisdom in our data management strategy meetings as we seek to develop processes that will aid us in our ability to communicate as a team, as well as utilize the breadth of our data in ways that are more helpful to what we do. May the Lord continue to gracefully lead us through the intricate webs of data management.

30 Ride for Hope Preparations

We ask the Lord for clarity as we begin to prepare for our September Ride for Hope projects rolling out across the country. May there be continual and growing support. May we see an increase ten-fold of participation and may all the finer details to make the event a total success come together with ease.

Continue steadfastly in prayer, being watchful in it with thanksgiving.
